

Q3 What is the single most important issue that affects your satisfaction with your emergency medicine career?

Answered: 63 Skipped: 7

#	Responses	Date
1	Over working because of physician shortage	10/31/2015 12:02 AM
2	lack of follow up	10/30/2015 8:08 PM
3	salary	10/29/2015 8:49 AM
4	pts with chronic conditions referred to the ED for management	10/26/2015 7:21 PM
5	administrative-type work	10/26/2015 9:00 AM
6	EMRs	10/26/2015 8:38 AM
7	"Need for speed"	10/25/2015 8:49 PM
8	Ability to manage more and diagnose more in the ED	10/25/2015 6:05 PM
9	over-regulation	10/25/2015 4:35 PM
10	Oppressive government influence	10/25/2015 9:49 AM
11	My colleagues	10/25/2015 7:00 AM
12	Night work	10/24/2015 11:11 PM
13	see above less medicine more nonsense	10/24/2015 10:09 PM
14	schedule	10/24/2015 2:45 PM
15	Patient satisfaction scores and complaints	10/24/2015 2:30 PM
16	support services and adequate staffing	10/24/2015 2:10 PM
17	appreciation for a job well done	10/24/2015 1:45 PM
18	EMR	10/24/2015 1:25 PM
19	Lack of prescription drug monitoring	10/24/2015 1:24 PM
20	Opportunities to provide definitive (curative) care	10/24/2015 1:14 PM
21	Ability to properly treat patients	10/24/2015 12:56 PM
22	inability to move patients thru ER	10/24/2015 12:53 PM
23	liability and regulations	10/24/2015 12:39 PM
24	Extreme patient volume and reimbursement with patient satisfaction	10/24/2015 11:54 AM
25	overcrowding	10/24/2015 11:53 AM
26	Regulatory issues and the effect on practice	10/24/2015 11:33 AM
27	Impact of servicing patients	10/24/2015 11:25 AM
28	Lack of outpatient resources	10/23/2015 5:19 PM
29	patient expectations and lack of respect	10/21/2015 2:15 PM
30	The focus on Patient Satisfaction survey's	10/21/2015 11:38 AM
31	Scribes	10/20/2015 8:28 PM
32	The resources at my disposal to provide great care to patients	10/20/2015 7:40 PM
33	Low reimbursement.	10/20/2015 4:36 PM

34	sustainable business model	10/20/2015 2:00 PM
35	Hospital and ED overcrowding	10/20/2015 12:36 PM
36	focus on patient satisfaction but not the support staff to enable it	10/20/2015 10:07 AM
37	Lack of appropriate primary care for follow up or to triage pt to to reduce unnecessary edutilization	10/20/2015 9:16 AM
38	Patient complaints/expectations	10/20/2015 7:35 AM
39	Access to outpatient and subspecialty resources	10/20/2015 7:16 AM
40	Low reimbursement	10/20/2015 4:50 AM
41	being too busy/inadequate staffing, drug seekers	10/20/2015 4:21 AM
42	volume	10/20/2015 12:24 AM
43	External pressures and metric management	10/19/2015 11:46 PM
44	nursing shortages	10/19/2015 9:30 PM
45	Pay	10/19/2015 8:01 PM
46	Patient load	10/19/2015 7:54 PM
47	Pressure of productivity and potential for missing diagnosis	10/19/2015 6:52 PM
48	Reimbursement/ED coverage	10/19/2015 5:59 PM
49	lack of access to primary care	10/19/2015 4:09 PM
50	Onerous documentation without enough time for patients.	10/19/2015 4:00 PM
51	access to care outside of the emergency department	10/19/2015 3:58 PM
52	The improper use of EM for non-emergent primary care.	10/19/2015 3:46 PM
53	Documentation demons documentation demons	10/19/2015 3:27 PM
54	Decreasing the number of uninsured patient's presenting for minor complaints. With insurance, especially dental, they could receive better care in a clinic setting.	10/19/2015 3:17 PM
55	Opiate seekers, chronic pain, super utilizers of the emergency department	10/19/2015 2:20 PM
56	Schedule	10/19/2015 2:14 PM
57	Overcrowding/boarding of psych patients	10/19/2015 2:10 PM
58	Student loan repayment with high interest rates.	10/19/2015 2:09 PM
59	Overburdened without sufficient resources	10/19/2015 1:53 PM
60	Competing demands	10/19/2015 1:52 PM
61	reimbursement v. Pt volume	10/19/2015 1:42 PM
62	Patient satisfaction as a factor in practice success	10/19/2015 1:41 PM
63	Increasing requirments	10/19/2015 1:38 PM